Learning the Most with Classroom Critters

SKILLS PRACTICED:
- Fine motor development
- Following a sequence of directions
- Creativity development
- Vocabulary development

Teaching Suggestions To Supplement The Making Of Classroom Critters:
To enhance vocabulary, identify and name each feature printed in heavy black lines on the construction paper.

Explore the attributes of different types of animals. For example, name and classify different kinds of animals according to type of tails, ears, or nose.

Modifications For Students Having Difficulty With Cutting Skills:
Enhance the preprinted heavy black line with a different color that will stand out.

Guide the student's cutting using hand–over–hand assistance.

Cut the large sheet into smaller sections so that the student can focus better on the shape to be cut, without so much extra paper in the way.

Precut the features for the student.
