3. Plan a design for your frame. You can trace it out in pencil on the frame, if need be.

   TIP: Using your brush add small amounts of water, a few drops at a time, to your paint and mix to improve flow and coverage.

4. Choose a color paint and paint all the areas of the frame that you want that color to be.

5. Rinse out your paintbrush in a cup of water, and dry it on a paper towel thoroughly.

6. Repeat steps 4-5 until your frame is completely painted.

7. Set aside, and allow ample time for your finished frame to dry before handling, or inserting a photo.
